HAWTHORNE RACING.

Something in the line of first class racing was promised yesterday at Hawthorne when La Grange Stakes came up for decision. This was an event for two-year-old fillies, worth $1,010 to the winner, $200 to the second and $100 to the third. It was a penalty and allowance race at the distance of five furlongs, and engaged were the best western misses of the year, if indeed the winner could not justly be claimed the best two-year-old filly in the United States. Black Venus was eligible for this stake, for which she would carry 122 pounds, but Pat Dunne expressed the opinion that at the weights Spirituelle would beat her to a certainty. The track being heavy and holding, of the eighty-three entries for the day thirty-one were scratched. Among the number being Tulla Fonso, J. Huffman's crack filly, said by Gen. W. H. Jackson to be in size, conformation and color a counterpart of the famed Belle of the Meade.

Lengthening out the distance for maidens to one mile caused a plunge on Friskal, ridden by J. Reiff, and this filly by Magnetizer went to the post at 2 to 1. She broke away and ran three-quarters, then being willing to stop. Brought to the post she was never better than next the last, the boy probably not riding her hard. Penso Roso had stood at 4 to 1, but now his post price dropped to 8 to 5 straight, while parties on early got as good as 3 to 2 for place. Bethlehem Star was also cut down from 10 to 6 to 1. Exquisite ran out in front, accompanied to the middle of the upper turn by John Sack and Long Suit. The two last-named here began to back up and were soon out of it. Penso Roso, running two jumps to the one of any other horse, came into the straight in the lead, finishing alone away off from Bethlehem Star, second. Eliza Blaze, third, was two lengths further back and just ahead of Bellamy, who made a bobble at the start, and so ran a fair race.

J. Reiff having been hit in the face with a chunk of mud which drew blood, was not thought likely to do Montgomery justice, and so Judge Rees substituted H. Martin. At the opening of the betting and before the change of jockeys was known O'Connell had stood at 6 to 5, but he now jumped to 2 to 1, while Montgomery for a time was at 7 to 5, eventually advancing, however, to 8 to 5. O'Connell broke quickest, but Montgomery soon passed him, the pair racing far in the lead of the others. It came to a hard drive from the betting ring home, Montgomery winning from the saddle out. Sauterne was third the first quarter, but fell away and Czarowitz held safe the third money from this out. Count Fonso, a new comer, ran fourth under the whip, but finished lengths behind Czarowitz. The showing made by Sauterne was unfavourably commented upon by excellent judges.

The stake feature was hurt badly by the scratching of Jinks, Miss Marion and Espionage. Of the starters, Spirituelle, Kunja and Good Hope had six pounds off; Queen of Song nine pounds off, whereas Rush carried a four pounds penalty. The nineteen regular and two field bookmakers were sadly disappointed at the turn affairs had taken, and, considering the race reduced to a walkover for T. C. McDowell's pair (Spirituelle and Rush) posted the prohibitive 1 to 4 against the entry, while "even money Rush a place" was the best offer. Assurance was made doubly sure when Queen of Song was left at the post and Kunja tangled up was at once out of it. Good Hope got off second to Spirituelle and not until the last eighth did Rush pass Schreiber's filly. Now, Conley, on Spirituelle, being some lengths to the good, looked around for Rush and took back his mount waiting for her to come up and win in order to keep the penalties off Spirituelle. Nice work might have effected this perfectly legitimate racing finesse, but Conley got scared by the nearness of Good Hope and J. Hill on Rush could never get up. So Spirituelle was first, Rush second and Good Hope third.

In the fourth race Tusculum furnished a scandalous awakening such as has not been known at the meeting. This horse has run more than once of late in Chicago and his first race was excused because of the statement of "sore shoulder, etc." He has done nothing since to justify the backing he received yesterday. The 15 to 1 generally posted was at once lapped up and a strong play throughout carried the post price to 7 to 1. And Tusculum, leading all the way, could have won by a greater distance than was he ahead of Elidad at the finish. Sunny was second up the back stretch; Prince Blazes third. At the upper turn Sunny was done and the favorite, Ollie Dixon, made her run. It looked as if she was gaining fast enough to catch the leaders, when all at once she stopped, Elidad passing her. The race for place was undecided until the final sixteenth, where Elidad passed Prince Blazes. The latter finished many lengths better than Ollie Dixon, alongside of which ran Friar John. "As Tusculum awoke, Friar John went to sleep," was the story of the betting. Tranby went away slowly and was last up the back stretch.

The hurdle race was won easily by the favorite, Ed Corrigan's Jezebel, who laid off in a nice position and came on in the home stretch. Hercules led until the third jump, where he made a bobble and lost much ground. Here La Colina got out in front and so remained nearly to the last jump, which is about the last eighth post. Nobilis had made the running with Hercules for one-half mile, but here pulled up and left the battle to his stable companion, Proverb. The latter ran second, beating La Colina easily. The latter had a hard tussle with Hercules. Bob White fell at the first hurdle.

Barney Schreiber's Dr. Marks won the last by his whiskers. He was well ridden the short road by J. Woods. Necedah kicked Del Paso II. in the foot at the post and finally got off badly. The longshots Herman Kahn and Gypceiver were practically left at the post. Pitfall set the pace accompanied by Lucid, who passed him midway the backstretch. Del Paso II. was third and Dr. Marks fourth until the others mentioned quit, then they fought all the way after making the turn for home, with Branch making the game three-handed for a time. The latter quit close in and the others ran home locked, the Doctor gaining the verdict by a short neck. Winslow and Mr. Easton fourth and fifth were four lengths behind Branch. Others beaten off.

The day was delightful, the threatening showers passing over and winding up in a beautiful rainbow.

The report, heard with regret by all, was current that John Condon, manager of the Harlem race track has lost the last ray of light. It has long been expected that absolute night would come to him, as his eyes have been seriously affected for years, but nevertheless his dire affliction comes as a shock to his friends.

The judges suspended R. F. Meyers, owner, and Nixon, jockey of Tusculum pending investigation, and told the owner of Barabbas that his entries would no longer be accepted.

It is said that the Tusculum party won $4,400 at Hawthorne and $15,000 around the country.

Time, 2:41, 52, 1:06½, 1:20, 1:50.

Winner—B. f. by Sir Dixon—Lady Faro. Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won pulled to a walk; second easily. Third and fourth driving. Penso Roso revealed in the going and was best. Bloss got away nicely and galloping in behind the others, went to the front when ready. Bethlehem Star, slow to begin, made up his ground gradually and got the place almost as easily as Penso Roso won. Friskal ran away three-quarters before the race. She did not seem to be going at top speed but it evidently killed her chances. She was off far back and never could make up an inch of ground. Little Reiff pulled up bleeding. He was hit with a clod and his lip cut. He was not seriously hurt. It was a very bad lot. Bellamy was ridden all over the track and finished strong.

Scratched—La Champagne, 107; Spring Leaf, 110; Alva's Pet, 107; Georgina, 107; Croesus, 107. Penso Roso, place, 3 to 5. Bethlehem Star, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Eliza Blaze, show, 8 to 5.

Time, 2:44, 374, 494, 1:03, 1:17.

Winner—Ch. g. by Hanover—Blessing. Post 1 minute. Won driving and staggering; second in about the same manner. It was strictly a two-horse race. Montgomery was favored by the soft going. He is a phenomenal horse on a heavy track. He was out, though, to the last ounce to beat O'Connell. The latter was none too well ridden. Conley seemed to be hitting him with the butt end of the whip the last sixteenth of a mile. Czarowitz improved from his last race. He ran a fair race, but nowhere near good enough to beat the first two. Madrilene wants weight off and a fast track. Give Filibuster keen attention from now on in lower class company. He stumbled at the start and made up a lot of ground. Sauterne and Newgatherer were both troubled with the slows. Throw their races out.

Scratched—Diggs, 107; Vice Regal, 107; Lady Callahan, 107; Organ Pilot, 110; Whitcomb, 107; Dave S, 113; C. H. Whelan, 107; Loyaletta, 107; Mistral II, 110. Montgomery, place, 1 to 2. O'Connell, place, 1 to 2. Czarowitz, show, 3 to 2.

8447 THIRD RACE—5-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Fillies. Allowances. La Grange Stakes. $1,000 added. value to winner $1,010; $55 entrance; $200 to second; $100 to third.

Time, 13, 254, 394, 514, 1:05.

Winner—Ch. f. by Spokane—Narka. Post 2 minutes. Start good for all but Queen of Song. Won pulled up; the next two were driving hard. Spirituelle again showed her high quality. She went to the front when ready and stayed there under a stout pull all the way. Conley yanked her up all of a sudden at the wire, and the wonder is he did not break the filly down. Rush had to be hard driven to beat Good Hope for the place. The latter stumbled going to the post and threw Martin, but did not attempt to run away. Queen of Song is suffering from a sore mouth and threw her head up just as the barrier rose. This accounts for her getting off so poorly. Kunja ran as if outclassed.

Scratched—Jinks, 119; Tulla Fonso, 119; Miss Marion, 119; Genna, 106; Espionage, 122; Hanlight, 106.

Rush, place, even; show, 1 to 4. Good Hope, show, 7 to 10.

8448 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; value to winner $300; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 2:51, 514, 1:05½, 1:19, 1:46, 1:53.

Winner—B. c. by Ben Strome—Crafty. Post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving hard; second and third were doing their best. Tusculum was played for a good thing and proved one. He had the speed of the party and ran a greatly improved race. The judges questioned both boy and owner about the last performance and put them under suspension pending an investigation. Elidad was stiff and sore in his preliminary but warmed out of it and ran a cracking good race. Prince Blazes was right there. He is a most consistent performer, especially on a slow track. Friar John just plodded all the way.

RINGER DISCOVERED AT FORT ERIE.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The management at Fort Erie, after investigation, discovered Caroline K., which ran in the second race today, to be a ringer. An officer was sent with her to the stable while she was being cooled out. Jockey Casteel, grasping an opportunity, mounted her and, tearing through the open gate, galloped her at racing speed down the road a couple of miles. She was afterwards found in an orchard and taken back and branded with a horseshoe on her right shoulder and both hips. W. Holler, Jockey Casteel, John Ryan, F. E. Bradberry and H. Spiers are all mixed up in the matter. The two former were placed under arrest while the latter two have run away. Bradberry was the person, it is said, who tried to put the Echo deal
through at Chicago a couple of years ago.

Jockey Burrell had his eye knocked out while warming up Kas in the first race. The horse fell with him.

Leo Lake was run up to $900 and bought by
P. M. Civill. Judge Wardell was run up by F.
Garner to $1,200 and bought in by Adam Beck.
The latter claimed Damocles for $900 and resold
him to P. M. Civill.

Throw his race out. Ollie Dixon seemed nowhere near herself. She was hard ridden the first part of it, but seemed to labor in the going and McNickle eased her up at the end. Tranby could not raise a gallop. Neither could Swordsman. In fact, it was a bad looking race.
Scratched—Livadia, 105; Cutter, 106; Muskadine, 106; Trebor, 101; Don Orsino, 106.
Tusculum, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Elidad, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Prince Blazes, show, 3 to 2.

8449 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Over 4 Hurdles.

*Coupled in betting.

Winner—Ch. f. St. Saviour—Sardonyx.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a mild drive; second and third were driving hard.
Jezebel was the best as the race was run. She fences to perfection and is a good game filly that is useful either on the flat or through the field. Proverb got a lazy ride. Duffy lay far out of it the first part of the route, and seemed never to make a move until the last obstacle was cleared.
He is good now and handled his weight nicely. La Colina is faint hearted. She had the speed of the party but tired badly. She seems to be almost a perfect jumper. The slow track stopped Uncle Jim. No damage came from Bob White's fall over the first hurdle.
Jezebel, place, 1 to 2. Proverb, place, 8 to 5. Call entry, place, 3 to 5. La Colina, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—B. g. by Sir Dixon—Belle Palmer.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive of two; third and fourth were doing their best. Dr. Marks was at home in the going and ran a game race. He was well ridden, too.
Woods picked the best going and put up a very powerful finish for so small a boy. Del Paso II tired badly and seemed to bear in all through the stretch. Branch performs consistently in the mud. Winslow could never get up. He needs strong handling. Double Dummy could not raise a gallop the first part of it, but finished strong. Keep this fellow in mind. He will win a race some day at a long price. Necedah could not get out of her own way.
Scratched—Jack of Hearts, 112; Valid, 99; Celtic Bard, 109; Barataria, 99.

Overweights—Lucid, 5 pounds.

Dr. Marks, place, 24 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Del Paso II, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Branch, show, even.

Winner—B. c, by King Alfonso—Crucite.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; the next five were driving. Barbee had a rough journey. He was bumped and thrown to his knees shortly after the start. Dashaway stuck better than usual. Padrone quit in the stretch. He may have been short, but is of little account. Frisco Ben closed very strong. Skink ran a fair race.

Overweights—Philip Byrnes, 4 pounds; Ruiz, 24.
Aberegate, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Dashaway, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Frisco Ben, show, 2 to 5.

Time, 12, 24, 36, 49, 1:01, 1:15.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ben Strome—Sweet Genevieve.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first six were in a hard drive. Carl C was whipped all the way and stood the drive gamely. Hub Prather is a good looker. He is improving and likes a distance. Fatherland was none too well handled. Watch him. Bessie Ewing bolted in the stretch. Pat Garrett was not as speedy as usual. Flying Bird does not want more than five furlongs in this company.

Overweights—Fatherland, 3 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g, by Kaiser—Mamie Cole.
Off at first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive. Three Bars let George Krats through on the stretch turn and carried J. H. C., who stumbled, out a trifle, but the best horse won. George Krats was vigorously hand ridden through the stretch, while J. H. C. was whipped and hard driven all the way after they straightened out. The pace was slow for the first half mile.

Overweights—J. H. C., 2 pounds; Three Bars, 4.

Winner—B. f. by Sir Modred—Memento.
Start fair. Won easily. Lady Lindsay beat the gate and was not pressed the first part by any contender. Gaze, lucky and perfectly handled throughout, was saved and finished strong. She is best in mud. Helen Thomas closed fast at the end. She is best over a longer route and was eased up the last sixteenth. She ran a fine race. Prestidigitatrice could not concede the weight. Effervescent closed fast. Theory is a grand looker and showed speed and was eased up at the end. Was short and will do better. Frances Booker ran poorly today and it may be found that the track was not to her liking. Kensington had no chance at the start.

Scratched—Bettie Gray, 110.

Lady Lindsay, place, 7 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Gaze, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Helen Thomas, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 2:51, 50, 1:03, 1:17, 1:43, 1:55.

Winner—Br. f. by Marauder—Bonnie Ino.
Start straggling. Won easily. Bon Ino, finely handled and thrown in the handicap, was probably best. Dr. Catlett was driving from start to finish. He is not at his best apparently, although he closed very fast after appearing to be hopelessly out of the race. Floronso was exhausted in chasing the lightly weighted Lady Marian and made his run too soon. The horse had great speed today and appeared to be galloping until the last eighth, when he stopped as if shot. He can do much better. Latson got inferior handling. He was a good horse today. Sir Walter showed speed and looks good. He was short. Leando can do much better. Poetess was all but left.

Scratched—Martha II, 116; Handball, 113.

Bon Ino, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Dr. Catlett, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Floronso, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Hanover—Cinderella.
Start fair. Won easily. Glenheim got the right ride at last. His great speed was put to some account by sending him out in front of his field. He is the grandest kind of looker and will probably show high class performances from now on. The Kentuckian ran an honest race and finished game and strong. Ben Viking, off well, closed strong and is very good now. Manlius, off badly, was a good horse. He is a fine looker. Exception is best over a route, but is ordinary. Colonel Tenny is common. Autumn was shut off, took the long route and was eased up the last eighth. Throw out his race. Rose O'Lee showed a great burst of speed. She was short and has a good private reputation.

Glenheim, place, 2 to 1; show, even. The Kentuckian, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Ben Viking, show, even.

Time, 1:17, 23, 36, 48, 1:01, 1:08.

Winner—B. f. by Tenny—Fair Vision.
Start bad. Won easily. Miss Tenny was probably the best, although presented with a flying start. The others were standing flat-footed. Tom Collins was also lucky in getting away and ran well. Ten Spot, favored throughout, ran a consistent race and is very good now, better than ever, in fact. Lennep, off badly, closed a big gap in the first part. She is very good. Tremargo was short. He looks fine. High Jinks was badly mixed up in the big field. Imperator and Momentum had no chance at the start. Both look fine. Uncle Louis is inferior. Decide had no chance with his jockey. Muriello stopped early. Harry Reed was almost left. He looked bad and lacked speed.

Scratched—Orion, 112; Lady Disdain, 99; Blissful, 99; Fleeting Gold, 99.

Miss Tenny, place, 1 to 2. Tom Collins, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Ten Spot, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Iroquois—Bracelet.
Start good. Won driving. Bangle was best. It was a poor race. He does not act like a horse that favors weight. Lilian Bell ran finely and is at her best. Sir Gawain stopped badly. Fast Black showed a great burst of speed on the stretch turn, but stopped in the stretch and was probably short. He acts like a stayer. Subject is only good in mud among the inferior ones.

Scratched—Colonel Tenny, 100.

Lilian Bell, place, even.

Time, 2:5, 49, 1:02, 1:16, 1:42, 1:49.

Winner—B. c. by Rayon d'Or—Fides.

Start good. Won easily. Firearm was a good horse. He can stay apparently any distance. Still he is unreliable and beat nothing good today. Whistling Con was ridden badly. He closed very fast at the end. He acts like a sulker and swerved all over the stretch. Clonsilla was a good mare and closed with astonishing gameness the last quarter after appearing to be beaten on the turn. Glenoise was bumped at the eighth pole by Whistling Con or she would have been closer up. Central Trust stopped badly. He can do better. Previous was short. He appeared to be the winner at the three-quarters. He is good and will win soon.

Scratched—Maximo Gomez, 119; Lady Marian, 112.
Firearm, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Whistling Con, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Clonsilla, show, 2 to 1.
